CCE Scholarship Application

To be eligible for a Center for Creative Education scholarship, all applicants are required to complete this form. Students will be evaluated according to their demonstrated leadership, financial need, academic standing (if applicable), and their commitment to the community and the CCE education programs.

A Scholarship Committee comprised of members of the CCE Board will review all applications.

Applicants are evaluated on the information supplied. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated. All information received is considered confidential and is reviewed only by the CCE Scholarship Committee. The number of awards will vary based upon available funding and the number of qualified applicants.

All recipients of the scholarships will be expected to be in good standing with CCE and the community. This includes attendance, punctuality, and a general upholding of the values of CCE.

Applicants under eighteen years of age must complete this form with a parent or guardian.
